CLOUDERA

The Cloudera Code

At Cloudera, our culture, our ethos, is centered on our values. We're here not only because we're experts at what we do, but also because we hold these values in common:

- Commitment – We are committed to high performance and excellence: to our customers, our communities, our teams, and ourselves.

- Integrity – We always act with integrity; approaching interactions with good intentions, honesty, transparency, and respect.

- Action – We believe in taking calculated risks; to push past 'what's always been done' in order to find what was never thought possible.
