BOARD MEMBER

Rob was previously chief executive officer of Hortonworks, prior to its merger with Cloudera. Hortonworks was the fastest enterprise software company to reach $100M in annual revenue and the first open source company to successfully IPO since RedHat. Prior to that, Rob served as chief operating officer of both SpringSource and JBoss, which were also some of the most commercially successful open source companies in history. He served in senior roles at Oracle, where he directed a $1 billion sales organization; I2; and Manhattan Associates. Rob has a bachelor's degree in business management from Jacksonville State University and is entrepreneur-in-residence at the University of Georgia's Terry College of Business.
